Life Member Award

The Life Member Award will be bestowed upon a member for significant contributions to local government. The Life Member distinction recognizes the member's dedication throughout their career to the work of the GFOA, promoting education, peer support and networking to enhance professional skills within local government. To be eligible for consideration for this award, a member must have a minimum of 10 years membership in GFOA.

Outstanding Achievement Award

The Outstanding Achievement Award is to recognize an achievement of a member by peers and possibly other organizations, as well as being acknowledged by GFOA as extraordinary and unique. The achievement should be specific to the municipal sector. The achievement could be a contribution that advances the cause and mandate of the GFOA.

Innovative Idea Award

The Innovative Idea Award is to recognize originality/creativity of a program/project that has overall significance to local government. The program/project should be a financial or technical advancement, improving a process significantly with proven cost/benefits and has garnered some form of recognition from the municipal sector.

Outstanding Contribution Award

The Outstanding Contribution Award is to recognize a member or supporter who has made a significant contribution to the GFOA of BC over a number of years. The nominee need not be active as a GFOA member, but must have been a long-time supporter and made a significant contribution to the success of the organization.

Please provide a summary of the work and accomplishments that the member has done to earn the distinction of being recognized for an award(s). The summary should be attached to this nomination form and submitted to the attention of Kala Harris, Executive Director, GFOABC, 408 - 612 View Street, Victoria, BC V8W 1J5 or email execdir@gfoabc.ca.
